

Dacorum Borough Council

Application for Mutual Exchange

Please complete this application form if you wish to apply to mutually exchange your home. All parties involved in the exchange (whether a DBC tenant or not) need to complete and submit a form.

You must not carry out any mutual exchange until all parties involved have received written agreement from us or their landlord.

Completing the Application Form

The information you provide on this form allows Dacorum Borough Council to assess if you and the tenant/s you are hoping to swap with are eligible to do so. It is important that you answer all the questions and provide details of your Landlord if not Dacorum Borough Council

When you have completed, signed and dated your form, please send or hand it in at the office at The Forum. You can also email it to Housing@dacorum.gov.uk.

Privacy Statement

This information is being collected by Dacorum Borough Council. The information will be used to plan, monitor and manage your tenancy more efficiently. This will enable us to improve the quality of service, by meeting individual tenant needs. Dacorum Borough Council is committed to protecting your privacy and processes data in compliance with the GDPR and other relevant legislation. If necessary, information about any support or communication needs you have told us about may be passed to contractors undertaking work on behalf of the council, in order to provide you with an effective service. We recognise our responsibility in ensuring that your personal data is kept secure and confidential and that data is processed fairly and lawfully. We will be happy to update and amend your data when necessary and will keep data no longer than necessary. Any statistics created from the information provided, will not contain personal information.

You have the right to see Personal Data held about you by Dacorum Borough Council. If you wish to do so please contact us. For further information on Data Protection or if you have a comment or complaint, visit our website.

Tenancy Fraud

Tenancy fraud, which includes fraudulent claims for a succession is a crime. Making a false declaration or submitting fraudulent documents to obtain a council tenancy is a criminal offence under the Fraud Act 2006, which carries a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison, an unlimited fine or both. Subletting and parting with possession of a property may also be prosecuted under the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 which carries a sentence of up to 2 years and a fine of up to £5,000 .

Dacorum Borough Council may prosecute any individual found to have given false information in order to obtain a tenancy.

5. Reasons for Refusal

Dacorum Borough Council can refuse permission for a tenancy exchange if there are reasonable grounds to do this.

Grounds for refusing a tenancy exchange include:

- your landlord has started eviction proceedings
- your home is adapted for a person with special needs and nobody in the new tenant's household has those needs
- the home you want to move to is much larger than your household needs
- the home you want to move to is too small for your household and you would be overcrowded

If you owe rent, Dacorum Borough Council may only approve your application on the condition that the arrears are paid off first.

6. Important Advice

Before you agree to a mutual exchange, check what your tenancy rights will be in a new home. You may have different or fewer rights with your new tenancy. Dacorum Borough Council strongly advises you to get independent housing advice before you exchange tenancies.

If you move to a property which is too big for your needs as described in the social sector size criteria regulations and receive Housing Benefit or Universal Credit you will have to pay some of your rent – this is commonly known as ‘bedroom tax.’ You can find information about how many bedrooms you can receive Housing Benefit or Universal Credit for on the Dacorum Borough Council website (www.dacorum.gov.uk)

To exchange tenancies, you must be a:

- council tenant with a secure council tenancy or a flexible council tenancy
- housing association tenant with an assured tenancy or a secure tenancy

You can also exchange tenancies if you are a housing association tenant with a fixed-term assured shorthold tenancy of 2 years or more.

You can't exchange tenancies if you:

- are a council tenant with an introductory tenancy or a demoted tenancy
- are a housing association tenant with a starter tenancy
- rent your home from a private landlord, even if you got the home through the council
- own your home as a shared ownership leaseholder

It is illegal for you or the other tenant to charge a fee as part of the tenancy exchange. You could be evicted if you charge or receive any money to swap your home.

7. Declaration

Please read the following carefully before signing –

- I confirm that I have read the advice provided on the previous page
- I confirm that I have not been subject to any pressure or coercion and that the decision I have made is of my own free will
- I acknowledge that I have been advised by Dacorum Borough Council to obtain independent legal advice
- I confirm that I have been advised that Tenancy fraud is a crime. Making a false declaration or submitting fraudulent documents to obtain a council tenancy is a criminal offence under the Fraud Act 2006, which carries a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison, an unlimited fine or both. Subletting and parting with possession of a property may also be prosecuted under the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 which carries a sentence of up to 2 years and a fine of up to £5,000.
- Confirm that if the exchange is agreed you will take up occupation at the new property on a permanent basis.
- I understand I may need to make good any works undertaken by the previous tenant.
