2. A members’ club or miners’ welfare institute may apply to a licensing authority for a club gaming permit or a club machine permit. A commercial club may apply to a licensing authority for a club machine permit only.

3. The Gambling Commission or the Police may submit an objection to your application within 28 days, beginning on the day on which the application is made.

4. No conditions may be attached to a club gaming permit or a club machine permit. However, it is expected that any relevant Codes of Practice issued by the Gambling Commission will be adhered to.

5. An application may be made to renew a permit as it approaches its expiry date. Such an application may not be made:
   - before the period of three months ending with the date on which the permit would otherwise expire, or
   - after the beginning of the period of six weeks ending with that date.

6. Where an application is made to convert an existing registration issued under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Gaming Act 1968, or to renew a Club Gaming Permit or Club Machine Permit under this Act, a copy of the existing registration certificate or permit should accompany the application.

7. A club gaming permit or club machine permit may not be issued in respect of a vehicle or vessel (or part of a vehicle or vessel).

8. Having regard to the licensing objectives and any guidance issued by the Gambling Commission, a licensing authority may refuse a permit application only on one or more of the following grounds:

      ii. in the case of an application for a club machine permit, a members’ club, a commercial club or a miners’ welfare institute,

    - There is no requirement to send copies of your application to the responsible authorities;

      b. the applicant is established or conducted wholly or mainly for the purposes of the provision of facilities for gaming of a prescribed kind and also provides facilities for gaming of another kind, or
      c. a club gaming permit or club machine permit issued to the applicant has been cancelled during the period of ten years ending with the date of the application.

   • where the application was made using the fast-track procedure, the club premises certificate issued under the Licensing Act 2003 ceases to have effect.

12. An annual fee is payable to the licensing authority to keep the permit in force.
