POLITICAL PARTIES, ELECTIONS AND REFERENDUMS ACT 2000

Under the provisions of the above Act, a Candidate may not use a description on their nomination paper which is likely to lead voters to associate them with a registered political party, unless the description is authorised by a certificate issued by or on behalf of the party's registered nominating officer.

You may only complete Part B, if you have Part A completed and signed.

NOTES

- The attention of candidates and electors is drawn to the rules for filling up nomination papers and other provisions relating to nomination contained in the election rules in Schedule 3 to the Local Elections (Principal Areas) Rules 2006.
  Where a candidate is commonly known by some title they may be described by their title as if it were their sunname.
  Where a candidate commonly uses a name which is different from any other name they have, the commonly used name may also appear on
- the nomination paper but if it does so the commonly used name linstead of any other name) will appear on the ballot paper.
- But the ballot paper will show the other name if the returning officer thinks the name may: [at be likely to mislead or conflue effectors, or (b) that the commonly used name is obscere or offensive

  - The description, if any, can only be:
  - (a) one certified as an authorised or registered description as mentioned in rule 5 of the election rules, or (b) the word "independent".
- 6. An elector may not :-
- (a) subscribe more nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled in the ward in which the election is held; or
- (b) subscribe a nomination paper for more than one ward in the same district.
- In this form "elector"-(a) means a person whose name is registered in theregister of local government electors for the electoral area in question on the last day for the publication of notice of election, and
  - (b) includes a person then shown in the register as below voting age if (but only if) it appears from the register that he will be of voting age on the day fixed for the poli.
- 8. However, a person who has an encrymous entry in the register of local government electors cannot nominate a candidate for election.
